

DISTRICT NEWS

Corps team on frontline of Ike recovery

Six employees of the Norfolk District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, deployed to Texas yesterday to join 10 team members, who after initially deploying Sept. 8 and 9 to Meridian, Miss., redeployed to San Antonio, Texas, when Hurricane Ike's pathway turned toward Galveston. (more)

Corps begins Chowan River Basin study

Scientists and engineers of the Norfolk District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers will begin a project study this month designed to address the water resource challenges affecting the thousands of people who reside in Virginia's Chowan River Basin. (more)

Hampton Roads Debris Removal program

This important Corps waterway team removes potential vessel-damaging debris as they traverse the federal navigation channel in the Hampton Roads Region of Virginia. (Video Story)

Swimmable, Fishable Campaign kicks off

The Elizabeth River Project kicked off its ambitious Swimmable, Fishable 2020 Campaign, which includes the assistance of the Norfolk District. (Video Story)

2008 CFC in full swing

The 2008 Combined Federal Campaign is in full swing. Remember to grab your CFC booklet and forms from Sarah Cameron. (more)

PUBLIC NOTICES

Proposal to improve an existing industrial waterfront property in Norfolk, Va. (more)

Proposal to construct a mixed use, service-oriented commercial development in Virginia Beach, Va. (more)

Norfolk District Commander, Col. Dionysios Anninos, joins the Elizabeth River Swimmable, Fishable Campaign kick off.

USACE/ARMY/DOD NEWS

Keep up on latest Iraq reconstruction

Like the Norfolk District, the Gulf Region Division, which oversees the reconstruction efforts in Iraq, also has YouTube. Watch the projects they are working on at www.YouTube.com/USACEGRD.

Odierno assumes command in Iraq

General Raymond T. Odierno assumed command of Multi-National Force-Iraq. (more)

Civil Service Corps takes root in Iraq

Former members of "Sons of Iraq" citizen security groups in Iraq's Kirkuk province took the next step in improving their communities this week, as they became apprentices in the Civil Service Corps. (more)

Military families potential scam targets

The letter that appeared in a Soldier's e-mail in-box promised an offer almost too good to be true: a home improvement loan approved by Congress and backed by a U.S. government agency. (more)

NORFOLK DISTRICT IN THE NEWS

Officials endorse plan to clean up Elizabeth River (The Virginian-Pilot)

Public workshop Thursday on coastal damage reduction project in Norfolk (The Virginian-Pilot)

Army Corps begins Chowan River Basin study (WTKR)