

DISTRICT NEWS

District Employees Tour Hopper Dredge

Nearly two dozen Norfolk District employees tour the Dredge McFarland after she traversed to Hampton Roads from the Philadelphia District. (more)

Campus designed with Soldier in mind

The Tactical Support Equipment Department, or TSED facility, at Fort Lee, Va., will train Soldiers on how to setup, maintain and repair equipment they will deploy in the field. (Video Story)

A look back at the past year

Employees of the Norfolk District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers embraced 2008 as the “Year of Military Construction,” as $645 million in 2005 Base Realignment and Closure authorizations dominated the lion’s share of mission execution. (more)

88 Angels receive gifts from Corps

The U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) recently named The Army's Residential Communities Initiative program as one of four winners for the 2008 President's Quality Award. (more)

Employees required to complete NO FEAR

Employees who have not completed the NO FEAR ACT training need to do so by Dec. 30. The training can be found on the district's (SharePoint site).

Be safe this holiday season

Consider SAFETY when planning holiday activities and travel. (more)

No Update till next year

Since there will be a limited staff at the district, the District Update will not be published for the next two weeks. Have a safe and happy holidays!

NORFOLK DISTRICT IN THE NEWS

Restoration or Destruction (Reston Connection)
Engineer seeing progress in Iraq (Post Standard)

USACE/VA/DOD NEWS

Solar power helping lights streets of Iraq

Mostly desert and a lot of sun, it makes sense there's a place for solar power in Iraq. (more)

New university to take lead in educating Army civilians

The new Army Civilian University is taking its first major step by assuming oversight of the Army Management Staff College at Fort Belvoir, Va. (more)

PUBLIC NOTICES

Upgrade of existing intersection of Route 7 and Route 607 in Loudoun County ,Va. (more)

Addendum to operational mitigation bank in Pittsylvania County. (more)

Proposal to establish a compensatory stream mitigation bank in Augusta County, Va. (more)

Proposal to construct the Opal Interchange project on new alignment in Fauquier County, Va. (more)

Proposal to establish, design, construct, and operate an umbrella compensatory wetland mitigation bank in Virginia Beach, Va. (more)

Proposal to establish an umbrella compensatory wetland mitigation banking agreement to provide off-site compensation in Loudoun County, Va. (more)

Proposal to establish proposes to establish, design, construct and operate a compensatory wetland and stream bank in Westmoreland County, Va. (more)